Catholic Church – A Source for a Grace-Filled Life

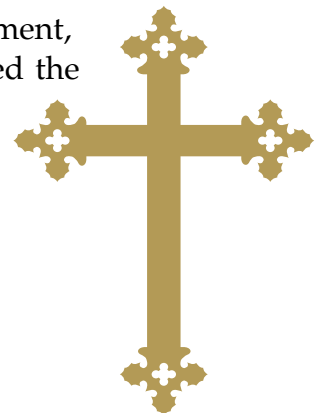

The Catholic Church is not just a place of worship—it is a wellspring of divine grace, a sacred home where the faithful encounter the living God. To be Catholic is to embrace a life shaped by truth, nourished by the sacraments, and filled with the presence of Christ. It is in the Church that we find direction, healing, and purpose. Through her teachings, prayers, and liturgical life, the Church opens the door to a deeper relationship with God. As Jesus says in the Gospel of John, “I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly” (John 10:10). This abundant life is found most fully in the Catholic life—a life steeped in grace.

Grace is the free and undeserved gift of God’s own life dwelling in us. It sanctifies, strengthens, and saves. It is through the Church, the Body of Christ, that this grace flows most powerfully—especially through the seven sacraments, instituted by Christ Himself. In Baptism, we are cleansed of original sin and born into the family of God. In Confirmation, the Holy Spirit seals us with courage and strengthens our faith. In the Eucharist, the source and summit of Christian life, we receive Jesus Himself—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—who nourishes us and transforms us from within. The Eucharist is not just a symbol; it is Christ truly present among us.

Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God’s mercy restores what was broken by sin. We are not condemned but invited into healing and peace. The Anointing of the Sick brings comfort, strength, and sometimes even physical healing to those burdened by illness and suffering. In Holy Matrimony, love becomes a sacrament—blessed, fruitful, and a mirror of God’s love for His Church. Through Holy Orders, men are ordained to serve Christ and His people, becoming instruments of grace through their ministry.

To live a grace-filled life is to live a sacramental life—a life immersed in prayer, guided by Scripture, and lived in communion with others. The Word of God becomes our lamp, and the Church becomes our compass. The saints, our heavenly companions, show us what holiness looks like in every walk of life. As St. Catherine of Siena said, “Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire.” The Church does not simply teach doctrines; she forms saints, kindles vocations, and calls each person to radical love.

Being Catholic is not about following rules—it is about following Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. In the Church, we are never alone. We are part of a family that stretches across time and space, bound together by grace and the Spirit. In every Mass, every sacrament, and every moment of prayer, heaven touches earth. Let us never take for granted the treasures we’ve received. Let us open our hearts wide to grace, trust in God’s mercy, and live each day as a gift and a mission. In the Catholic Church, we are home—and in this home, we are led to holiness, to healing, and to heaven.

Be part of the Catholic Church and live a Grace filled life. God bless you all.

Your Priest in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Pasala

Sacrament of Matrimony

The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony involves more than just "booking" a particular date for a wedding. Please keep in mind that church dates are limited. It is highly recommended to book the church when booking your reception hall. Also, since the marriage preparation process usually takes several months to complete, please contact the Family Office at least nine months in advance to start the marriage preparation process.

Baptismal Sponsors

This is an honor, but so much more. Whether for Baptism or Confirmation, being a sponsor means that you are promising to assist the parents in raising this person in the Catholic Faith. In order to fulfill that responsibility, the sponsor needs to be a practicing Catholic. This means that prayer, scripture, the sacraments and especially Mass are important priorities in his/her life. This also means that a sponsor needs to be a fully initiated Catholic who has received the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation, and, if married, was married in the Catholic Church.

Baptismal Class

Fort Recovery Classes are held on Tuesdays at 7 pm. The next class at Fort Recovery for 2025 is October 7, 2025. Please call 419-375-4153 to register. Coldwater Classes are held on the 3rd Sunday of the month at 7 pm. Please call 419-678-4802 to register. The Baptismal Class is required for all first-time parents.

TOGETHER
Sunday

Striving to be a place where people feel a strong sense of belonging. Where they are invited, welcomed, and supported. And most of all, where they can experience the joy of encountering Jesus in the Eucharist and in each other.

1. Start with Prayerful Openness

Ask God to place someone on your heart.
Trust that God is already at work.

2. Hold Them in Prayer

Pray for that person each day. Ask for the grace to be a gentle and loving presence in their life.

3. Connect through Friendship

Be present. Reach out. Initiate a conversation, a coffee, a shared moment. Let them know they are loved.

4. Extend a Personal Invitation

When the time feels right, invite them to take a next step in faith. For some that might be an invitation to come to Mass with you on Together Sunday — a day set aside for welcoming and community.

Also, celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (our Parish Family namesake) with us on September 14, 2025 along with Together Sunday.

We're better together.

Saint of the Week - Saint Gregory the Great

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, "Gregorian" chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory's legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory's administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and adviser, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the Church's material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promoter of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the "Gregorian Canon" (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated "the Great," a fitting epitaph. —Peter Scagnelli
