Message from the Priests

Mass: Where hearts meet God not duties

The Holy Mass is not a rule to be satisfied but a relationship to be lived. When we come to Mass, we do not come merely to fulfill an obligation; we come to meet God, our loving Father, who calls us His children. As Scripture invites us, “Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the Lord who made us” (Psalm 95:6). Every time we attend Mass, we are invited into a sacred exchange: we come offering ourselves to God, and we return home blessed by Him. The structure and spirit of the Mass can be beautifully understood through ACTS—Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving, and Supplication. These guide our hearts into full, conscious, and active participation in worship.

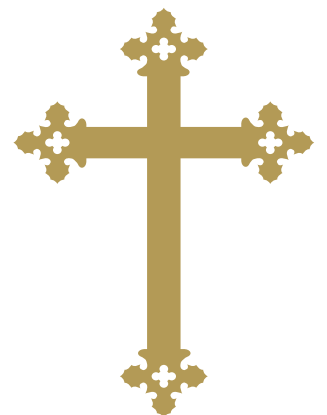

In Adoration, we recognize who God is and who we are before Him. The Mass lifts us beyond routine and draws us into reverence and awe. We come not as strangers but as children who belong to Him, for “In Him we live and move and have our being” (Acts 17:28). Adoration is love responding to Love.

In Contrition, we stand humbly before our Father, aware of our weaknesses yet confident in His mercy. Like the prodigal son, we return trusting the Father’s embrace (Luke 15:20). God does not shame us; He restores us. As Pope Francis reminds us, “God never gets tired of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking His mercy.”

The heart of the Mass is Thanksgiving. The word Eucharist itself means thanksgiving. Here, Christ gives Himself entirely to us. Jesus assures us, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger” (John 6:35). Receiving Him, we learn to live grateful lives. St. Augustine expressed this longing well: “Our hearts are restless until they rest in You.”

In Supplication, we place our needs, the needs of the Church, and the needs of the world into God’s loving hands. We trust His promise: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). Nourished by Word and Sacrament, we are sent forth to live as witnesses of His love. When Mass is lived as an encounter rather than an obligation, it becomes a joyful offering of self. We come to meet God—and we go home blessed, renewed, and strengthened as His beloved children. We leave ready to live what we have celebrated and share His love with the world.

Sacrament of Matrimony

The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony involves more than just "booking" a particular date for a wedding. Please keep in mind that church dates are limited. It is highly recommended to book the church when booking your reception hall. Also, since the marriage preparation process usually takes several months to complete, please contact the Family Office at least nine months in advance to start the marriage preparation process.

Baptismal Sponsors

This is an honor, but so much more. Whether for Baptism or Confirmation, being a sponsor means that you are promising to assist the parents in raising this person in the Catholic Faith. In order to fulfill that responsibility, the sponsor needs to be a practicing Catholic. This means that prayer, scripture, the sacraments and especially Mass are important priorities in his/her life. This also means that a sponsor needs to be a fully initiated Catholic who has received the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation, and, if married, was married in the Catholic Church.

Baptismal Classes

The Baptismal Class is required for all first-time parents and registration is needed prior to attendance. Please contact the Coldwater Parish office if you prefer baptism of your child at Holy Trinity, St. Anthony, or St. Mary. Please contact the Ft. Recovery Parish office if you prefer baptism of your child at Mary Help of Christians, St. Joseph, St. Paul, or St. Peter.

Baptismal Schedule

1st Sunday	2nd Sunday	3rd Sunday	4th Sunday

The Precepts of the Church

Given to us by the Church, these are the minimum obligations every practicing Catholic is expected to follow.

1. You shall attend Mass on Sundays & holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor.
2. You shall confess your sins at least once a year.
3. You shall humbly receive your Creator in Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter Season.
4. You shall observe the prescribed days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church.
5. You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church.
6. You shall observe the Church's laws regarding marriage.

In Loving Memory...

FROM THE BUSINESS MANAGER — As mentioned in our recent annual business summary, we are currently budgeting our Parish Permanent Improvement fund (PPI Envelopes and PPI Online giving) to address three major projects within the next 5 years. These include a new roof, new gutters/spouting/downspouts and a complete resurface of the parking lot. Our goal is to set aside $175,000 each year over the next 4 years (or roughly $14,500/month). For reference, July PPI was $4,300, Aug. $5,100, Sept. $11,200, Oct. $26,300, Nov. $18,009, and Dec. $20,536 for an average of $14,240.83. We kindly ask you to keep this in mind as you make your weekly/monthly or special donations. The PPI envelopes are a separate donation from the normal weekly contribution envelopes and online giving. Working together, we can continue to keep Holy Trinity's buildings and grounds well maintained and a special place for worship.

ATTENTION:

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD — Childrens Liturgy of the Word will be starting back up on Sunday, February 15, 2026.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD — We are in need of parent volunteers to help bring children to and from church during Mass, assist with activities, and ensure all children are safely returned to their parents. To meet Safe Environment guidelines, we must have one adult for every ten children; if we are unable to meet this ratio, we may have to discontinue the program. We would very much like to avoid this, so if you can help even once a month, please sign up using the QR code or contact Sarah Klosterman. Your help makes a big difference!

Saint of the Week - Saint Thomas Aquinas

By universal consent, Saint Thomas Aquinas is the preeminent spokesman of the Catholic tradition of reason and of divine revelation. He is one of the great teachers of the medieval Catholic Church, honored with the titles Doctor of the Church and Angelic Doctor. At five Saint Thomas Aquinas was given to the Benedictine monastery at Monte Cassino in his parents' hopes that he would choose that way of life and eventually became abbot. In 1239, he was sent to Naples to complete his studies. It was here that he was first attracted to Aristotle's philosophy. By 1243, Thomas abandoned his family's plans for him and joined the Dominicans, much to his mother's dismay. On her order, Thomas was captured by his brother and kept at home for over a year. Once free, Saint Thomas Aquinas went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great. He held two professorships at Paris, lived at the court of Pope Urban IV, directed the Dominican schools at Rome and Viterbo, combated adversaries of the mendicants, as well as the Averroists, and argued with some Franciscans about Aristotelianism. His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, pervades his writings. One might expect Thomas, as a man of the gospel, to be an ardent defender of revealed truth. But he was broad enough, deep enough, to see the whole natural order as coming from God the Creator, and to see reason as a divine gift to be highly cherished. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. He stopped work on it after celebrating Mass on December 6, 1273. When asked why he stopped writing, he replied, "I cannot go on.... All that I have written seems to me like so much straw compared to what I have seen and what has been revealed to me." He died March 7, 1274.

Traditional Church Envelope Giving

Using the contribution envelopes is the traditional method of giving to your church. When you register at the Parish, you are added to the mailing list to receive these envelopes. The envelope system helps to:

1. Organize the collections throughout the year, including the second or special collections.
2. Record your individual contributions for your year-end statement.
3. Encourages parishioners to contribute by providing a tangible reminder each week.
4. Provides the parishioner the ability to specify the donation amount and where their contributions are applied (e.g. general fund, PPI, food pantry, etc.).

In order to update our envelope mailing list, if you are receiving envelopes and do not use them, please contact your business manager to be removed from the list.

Year-End Statements

Year-end statements are available upon request. If you would like to receive your 2025 year-end statement, please call or email your business manager.
