DELEGATE ALLOWANCE – DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

Article IX, Section 2, Department Constitution and Bylaws; provide that: “in the Department Convention each Post shall be entitled to two (2) delegates for the first fifteen (15) members. Post with less than fifteen (15) members shall be entitled to only one (1) delegate, each Post shall be entitled to one (1) additional delegate for each twenty-five (25) members or major fraction thereof, whose current dues have been received by the Department Headquarters thirty (30) days prior to the date of said convention, and one (1) alternate for each delegate. The registered and certified delegates present at the Department Convention may cast the total vote authorized for the Post.”

POLICY ON DEPARTMENT CONVENTION REGISTRATION

1. All American Legion Delegates shall pay the full registration fee for each annual Department Convention, regardless of when they register at the Convention site, with the exception of the World War I, World War II & Korean War Veterans. In appreciation of their contribution, their registration will be free.
2. All Legionnaires, Auxiliary and SAL Members wishing to register as delegates, alternates or guests for the convention shall pay the full registration fee and will be issued a guest badge, which permits admission to all Legion meetings and events.
3. Official invited guests of the Department Commander will be provided complimentary registrations.
4. The advance registration fee for the Annual Convention is $30.00 and must be received in Department Headquarters by June 18, 2026. No refunds will be made after that date. The full registration fee thereafter and at the Convention site shall be $40.00, with the exception of the World War I, World War II & Korean War Veterans. In appreciation of their contribution, their registration will be free.
5. The Department Commander and all Department Officials shall pay the full and/or advance registration fee of the convention the same as all other delegates.
6. Department Employees shall handle all monies during registration for the convention and all convention events.
7. The Department Sergeant at Arms and his/her assistants will check all people entering convention sessions, Commander’s reception and all convention meeting/events and permit no one to enter without proper registration badge or tickets.
8. The SAL, Auxiliary and Jr. Auxiliary will conduct their own separate registration at the Department Convention; this includes their handling of their own advanced registration.

PROCEDURES FOR SELECTION OF POST VOTING METHOD

In accordance with the Prescribed Post Bylaws, Article IV – Delegate, each Post must select the method for the voting by those delegates who do not attend the convention.

Section 1. Delegates and alternates to a Department, Division, or District Convention shall be elected by the Post at a regular meeting of the Post to be held not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of such convention. However, the Post, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present may authorize the Post Commander to appoint said delegates. The Post Commander shall, immediately upon their election or appointment, designate the chairman. Alternates for delegates shall have all the privileges of registered delegates except that of voting. A registered delegate is one who has received his/her credentials after his/her registration fee has been paid.

Section 2 Each duly registered delegate shall be entitled to one vote. At the time the delegates are elected, the Post will select either the Pro-Rata Rule or the Modified Unit Rule, as described below, as the method of voting for those delegates who do not attend the convention.

Section 3. The chairman of the delegation shall cast the entire delegate vote on any convention matter, after first polling the delegates present, so as to reflect the vote of each delegate present.

PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING RESOLUTIONS AT DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

1. At the opening session of the convention the first item on the agenda should be the report and adoption thereof of the Convention Rules Committee and in any event such report and adoption should be presented and passed on Friday.
2. All resolutions to be presented at the Department Convention should be in writing, certified to by subordinate units from which they are sent and filed at Department Headquarters at least thirty (30) days prior to the Department Convention.
3. All resolutions received by Department Headquarters for submission to the Department Convention will be assigned a number by the Department Adjutant prior to being delivered to the Department Resolutions Assignment Committee and such resolutions, once assigned a number, will continue to carry such number through the committee assigned to and on convention floor.
4. Any resolution to be presented to the Department Convention which has not been filed with Department Headquarters thirty days prior to such convention, may be presented to the Department Resolutions Assignment Committee not later than 8:00 A.M. on Friday at the Department Convention and on a two-thirds vote of the Resolutions Assignment Committee such resolution will be assigned to the proper committee for consideration at the convention.
5. That the Resolutions Assignment Committee shall have the authority to determine if the subject matter of the Resolution is germane to the program of The American Legion.
6. Where a resolution carries dual subject matter that pertains to two or more committees, the Resolutions Assignment Committee shall determine which committee has basic responsibility and refer same to that committee first, then indicate to that committee which additional committees the resolution should be referred and in what order.
7. All resolutions originating in Posts or District Executive Committees must be forwarded to the respective District Conventions for consideration by the Department Convention. Such District adopted resolutions need not be forwarded to the respective Division Convention for consideration unless specifically requested by the respective District Convention; however, irrespective of the action taken thereon by the Division Convention such District passed resolution will be forwarded to Department Headquarters for presentation to the Department Convention for consideration.
8. Division Conventions may originate resolutions as a subordinate unit and submit same to Department Headquarters for presentation to the Department Convention for consideration.
9. Each resolution submitted from a convention committee to the convention floor shall be in writing on forms provided by Department Headquarters and certified to by the committee chairman in four copies.
10. Resolutions emanating from a convention committee and submitted to the floor of the convention shall be accepted, rejected or referred. A number for such resolutions shall be obtained from the Resolutions Assignment Chairman.
11. The Department Adjutant shall maintain a Convention register of all resolutions received, assigned and processed which shall identify each resolution by number, indicating the committee to which the resolution was referred and the originating source.

In submitting resolutions, the following points should be carefully observed:

- a. A resolution shall deal with only one subject. Do not attempt to deal with more than one subject in the RESOLVING clauses.
- b. All local RESOLVING clauses are to be omitted, substituting therein a clause resolving national action, i.e. the resolution as submitted should be worded for the Department Convention as follows:

RESOLVED, By The American Legion, Department of Texas in State Convention assembled in Austin, Texas, July 10, 11 and 12, 2026, That —
- c. Each resolution is to be worded in full, including all WHEREAS clauses as well as the RESOLVING clauses.
- d. Each resolution is to be signed in black ink and the originating source clearly typewritten or indicated, unless it is submitted as a computer file. Then the originating source is to be placed in the header of the form.

12. Each resolution should be supported by the identification of the individual or group originating the resolution, and also by a written statement or brief containing the supporting arguments in favor of the action sought, and clearly establishing the material relevance of the subject to the purpose for which The American Legion was formed.
