March 2025 Newsletter

Talent/Art/Craft Show

Greetings in March.

It certainly feels like spring as I write this newsletter. However, I try not to be fooled, after all we do live in New York State!

We have had a couple of events since the last newsletter. The E-sports tournament took place at the beginning of March with eight teams of two participating. Participants included some young adults that had attended YFC ministries in the past. All of the participants appeared to be having fun during this event and I gave a talk entitled "No Regrets".

I began by discussing a difficult time in my life when my father passed away. I am thankful that I was able to take the opportunity to witness to him on his death bed, leaving me with no regrets (I believe he found salvation in our Lord before passing). I also mentioned a friend who passed away and that I regret that we did not discuss her walk with Jesus. The talk continued by mentioning a YFC student who was killed by a car. I had seen him a few months before the tragedy as he professed Christ while getting baptized and there was a feeling of no regrets. The talk was concluded by sharing with the teens that they should have no regrets in life especially when it comes to knowing Jesus, accepting him and the life He wants to share with them as their personal Lord and Savior.

While sharing I recognized looks from several in the group that indicated they were really listening. So although no one declared their faith in Jesus that day I saw real interest. (Mike is planning to meet one on one with one boy who seemed to be listening intently).

Please continue to pray with me for those who have ears to hear, to hear the word of the Lord and decide to follow Him.

Reaching one kid at a time,
Dorothy
