Soccer Days-May 24th at the Teen Center

There were four teams consisting of a total of 31 teens that participated in our Soccer Tournament. The competition was very good and hopefully all of the players took away fun memories from the tournament.

During YFC events we try to always have a Bible lesson time and I usually present the lesson. A few of the teens are regular attenders in other YFC activities however, most are teens who only attend the Soccer Day Tournament. In my mind I am thinking that this may be the only opportunity I have to share the gospel with them. One moment in time may be all there potentially could be. I pray that I will present the message clearly and keep their attention as I put on a fake parachute. Then I begin by mentioning that society tells us we can get to heaven in multiple ways and we just need to pick one. Is this true? Just like the parachute is fake and can't save us so is the lie that all ways lead to heaven and therefore are equal to obtaining eternal life. Continuing on with Bible verses, I question Jesus for saying in the Bible that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. So either He is a liar or He is the Son of God and our Savior. He can't be both.

Next I challenged the teens who are followers of Jesus to be ready to share this truth with their friends. I also challenged teens that are not followers of Jesus, to think seriously about what I have discussed. What is at stake in each of their lives is the same as using a fake parachute to jump out of a plane.

Just as I challenged the teens, my challenge to everyone is, when you meet someone remember, this might be the only time they will hear the gospel. Use your interaction with people wisely because you might be the only person that tells them not to rely on a false religion for eternal life and that the only way is through Jesus Christ.
