
https://www.theadvocate.com/acadiana/news/business/lafayette-company-merges-with-2-others-to-form-curana-health/article_36117af6-d1fa-11ec-bfd8-43cee2553942.html

Lafayette company merges with 2 others to form Curana Health

BY ADAM DAIGLE | ACADIANA BUSINESS EDITOR
MAY 12, 2022 - 8:48 AM

Provider Health Services, a Lafayette-based company that provides health care services to senior living communities, joined forces with two other companies to form a new business.

Curana Health is the name of the combined company that will be in 26 states and over 1,000 senior living facilities, according to an announcement. PHS combined with Elite Patient Care of Austin, Texas, and AllyAlign Health of Virginia to form a company that will have a mission of improving the health, happiness and dignity of senior living residents.

This website stores data such as cookies to enable essential website functionality, marketing, personalization and analytics. By remaining on this website you indicate your consent. See updated terms and conditions.

The Curana Health Medical Group has over 400 physicians, nurse practitioners and physician assistants that provide primary care, post-acute care and other clinical services in skilled nursing facilities, life plan communities, assisted living facilities and memory care facilities.

EMAIL ADAM DAIGLE AT ADAIGLE@THEADVOCATE.COM.

This website stores data such as cookies to enable essential website functionality, marketing, personalization and analytics. By remaining on this website you indicate your consent. See updated terms and conditions.