Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge
Washington & Jurisdiction

Right Worshipful Bell is the son of Mrs. Fannie Lou Bell and Leonard Alexander. He was born in Pasco Washington, the fourth child of eleven children.

After graduating from Pasco Senior High School in Pasco Washington in 1977, Right Worshipful Bell started his apprenticeship at UA Local 598 Plumbers and Steamfitters and graduated with his journeyman card in 1983.

Right Worshipful Bell left Pasco in search of work as a Pipefitter. He worked in Linden New Jersey, Dayton Ohio, Oswego New York, Pottstown Pennsylvania, Boise Idaho, Portland Oregon, and then after returning to Pasco Washington in 1988, he went to work for Battelle until retiring in 2004.

Right Worshipful Bell time in Masonry is based on the support of his wife, Graciela of 42 years, his daughter, Fanessa, and sons, Donald Jr. and Aaron, who have been behind him every step of the way.
