For the purpose of this clause 'socially excluded' means being excluded from society, or parts of society, as a result of one of more of the following factors: unemployment; financial hardship; youth or old age; ill health (physical or mental).

4. Powers

The Brackley Shed has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objectives or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the Brackley Shed’s powers include power to:

5) Deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund manager and arrange for the investments or other property of the Brackley Shed to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

5. Application of Income and Property

(1) The income and property of the Brackley Shed must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.

(a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Brackley Shed or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Brackley Shed.

(b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Brackley Shed's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

(2) None of the income or property of the Brackley Shed may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the CIO. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:

(a) A benefit from the Brackley Shed as a beneficiary of the Brackley Shed;

(b) Reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Brackley Shed.

(3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and Payments to Charity Trustees and Connected Persons

(1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

(a) Buy or receive any goods or services from the Brackley Shed on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

(b) Sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Brackley Shed;

- (c) Be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Brackley Shed;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Brackley Shed;

Unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained in this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

- (a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the Brackley Shed as a beneficiary of the Brackley Shed provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Brackley Shed where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the Brackley Shed with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.

- (e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the Brackley Shed. The amount of the rent and other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Brackley Shed on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The Brackley Shed and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the Brackley Shed and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).

(b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of goods in question.

(c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Brackley Shed to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

(d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Brackley Shed.

(e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.

(f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

(g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.
