

KILLINA (KILLYNAGH MORE) CEMETERY

CO. ROSCOMMON

Tulsk History Society Survey 2025

Killina cemetery is in the ancient civil parish of Elphin but has been in the Catholic parish of Tulsk since 1868 when a cluster of 18 townlands were transferred from Elphin parish. It is located by the L1413 road, east of the N61 route, 5.5 kilometres north of Tulsk Village. The site of an ancient church, with part of its wall standing, is in the interior of the cemetery. It was among the churches named in the Papal Taxation Lists 1302-1306. A new extension was added to the cemetery in 1957.

Thanks to Eileen & Patsy Burke and the Killinagh More Historic Graves website for the use of additional information (shown in italics) which is not engraved on the memorials.
