Activities: Tea, Coffee and Raffle

Day 1 – 15:30, Kes
(1969, 110 mins)

- Kes follows the story of Billy, who comes from a dysfunctional working-class family and is a no-hoper at school but discovers his own private means of fulfillment when he adopts a fledgling kestrel and proceeds to train it in the art of falconry.

Day 2 - 13:00, The Railway Children Return (2022, 95 mins)

- Picking up nearly forty years after the events of the original film, 'The Railway Children Return' will take audiences on an exciting and heart-warming journey, in which a new group of children are evacuated to a Yorkshire village during World War 2.

Day 2 – 15:00,
Hope and Glory
(1987, 113 mins)

- A semi-autobiographical project by John Boorman about a nine-year-old boy called Bill as he grows up in London during the blitz of World War II. For a young boy, this time in history was more of an adventure, a total upheaval of order, restrictions and discipline. The liberating effect of the war on the women left behind. And the joy when Hitler blows up your school.
