PROVERBS 1:1-7

The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:
2 for gaining wisdom and instruction;
for understanding words of insight;
3 for receiving instruction in prudent behavior,
doing what is right and just and fair;
4 for giving prudence to those who are simple,
knowledge and discretion to the young—
5 let the wise listen and add to their learning,
and let the discerning get guidance—
6 for understanding proverbs and parables,
the sayings and riddles of the wise.
7 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge,
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

PSALM 119: 1,24,18, 33,34, 27

1 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless,
who walk according to the law of the Lord.

24 Your statutes are my delight;
they are my counselors.

18 Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in your law

33 Teach me, Lord, the way of your decrees,
that I may follow it to the end

34 Give me understanding, so that I may keep your law

27 Cause me to understand the way of your precepts,
that I may meditate on your wonderful deeds.
