

The Homecoming

Lyrics copyright © 1979 Matthew Zuckerman; music copyright © 1986 Richard Evanoff;
"When Johnny Comes Marching Home" is in the public domain

Time 4/4 and 6/8 — Key Am — No capo

INTRO: Am G
(4/4) When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah

 Am C E
When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah

 Am G
All the men will cheer and the boys will shout

 F E
And the ladies they will all turn out

 Am G F E Am
And we'll all feel gay when Johnny comes marching home

(6/8) Am Em F C F Em G

1. Am Em
The moon comes up

 F C
The sun sets

 F C G
The stars like fires burn

 Am Em
The young girl sits

 F C
And softly weeps

 F C G
For he has not returned

 Am G F Em F C/E G/D
CHORUS: Oh Johnny, Johnny, won't you come home?

 Am G F Em F C/E G/D
Oh Johnny, Johnny, won't you come home?

 Am (Em) Am
Come on home

2. The moon goes down
 The stars fade
 The night yields to the sun
 Her head bowed deep
 In worried sleep
 Yet still he has not come (CHORUS)

BRIDGE: Am Em F Em F C/E G

3. The soldiers all
 Have now returned
 Laid down their rusty guns
 Put on their work clothes
 And their smiles
 Yet one will never come (CHORUS)