The 12 days of Christmas finds the Church remembering people and events shaped by the coming of our Lord Jesus in humility. December 28 is the day the Church remembers the Holy Innocents, the children of Bethlehem slaughtered by the raving of King Herod. In the midst of all the feasting and glad tidings of good joy, the Church draws to our ears, mouths and hearts the fact that this world refused and still does to receive her King and how sin continues to rage against the working and will of God.

Today's service, with our hymns, are seeking to draw us into contemplating on the fact that the One born was given to overcome all sin and sadness.
