The sign up to support the Lutherans for Life ad in the Messenger in January is up at both St Paul & Immanuel. Please sign your name and donate (if able) to make a public confession to the evils and destruction that abortion has caused in our world. A suggested $3 donation per name is requested. Deadline to gather signatures is January 5.

2025 Annual Meeting will be held on Sunday, Jan. 25, after church. Council meeting will be held the preceding Sunday, Jan. 18, also after church. If you are not a voting member and would like to become (must be 18+) please speak to Ann Boerst or an Elder.

The Immanuel LWML invites its members and the congregation members –adults AND children–to participate in our CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS for MITES project. Just pick up a mini Christmas Stocking from the box on the greeter's table and fill with your donation (you can follow the directions on poem inside or give whatever way you choose). There will be a big Christmas Boot in the narthex during December and early January to deposit your filled stocking. All money collected will be sent to our LWML District to help support our many worthy mission projects. Your participation during this season of giving will be much appreciated by LWML besides giving you a warm feeling inside!

Have you been wanting to help more at church but aren't sure how? Here are some opportunities for you. At the Annual Voters meeting on January 25, we will be looking for volunteers to hold a job on our church council. If you might be interested please talk to an Elder or the person currently holding the position. Our openings are Chairman (Tim Treptow), Recording Secretary (Ann Boerst), Elders (Brian Brede & Steve Daskam), Trustee (Matt Stanke), Board of Ed. (Kelly Arvey) and Board of Finance (Kathy Voelz). For more information regarding these positions, please refer to your constitution (extras are available in the narthex)
