We thank you so much for attending our Easter Divine Service this morning, as we have been gathered to sing the victory song of Jesus Christ, our eternal Lord and God, who laid down His life for us on the cross so to bring us eternal life when He walked in triumph out the tomb three days later. That from there, we live as freed men and women-freed from sin's accusation, freed from death's dread, freed from the devil's control and sway over us. For now we are the glorious redeemed-redeemed in the work and mercy and love of the Redeemer, He who delivers us into the grace of the Father's presence through His sacrificial work for us.

If you are a visitor with us this morning, please make sure to sign the guest book. We truly are blessed to have you with us this morning as we celebrate on this joyous day.
