Newsletter of St. Paul & Immanuel Lutheran Church-May 2026

Five young men and women, Brantley & Aubrey Lierman, Liam Nowinsky (SP), Cannon Kowalczyk, Deanna Smith (IM), have been preparing to enter into confirmed membership of Immanuel & St. Paul. Upon the successful report from their examination questions, the rite of Confirmation will be held on Sunday, May 17. Worship for that day at Immanuel will be started at 10:30 am to accommodate the service at St. Paul.

Immanuel celebrates our graduates this month: Myles Kornaus from Pulaski HS & Ashlee Raddant from UW-Oshkosh. We will recognize them on May

St. Paul will hold their Spring Clean-Up day on Saturday, May 9, starting at 9 am. All and any help is appreciated.

Thanks to all-the secretaries, organists, musicians, elders and volunteers who worked hard for our parish in making Holy Week and Easter so wonderful!

We will be holding mid-week worship at Immanuel this summer, at 7 pm on Wednesday's, starting June 3.

This year we will be exploring the richness of Lutheran hymnody, studying, preaching and singing the hymns that have given us the moniker of the "Singing Church"

We will be holding our second 5th Sunday Joint Parish Potluck at Immanuel on Sunday, May 31, starting around 11:15 am. Both congregations are encouraged to come, share your favorite dish and gather to be the Church family we've been made in the Death and Resurrection of Jesus.
