Church Announcements

Today is All Saint's Day, where we remember those from our family that have fallen asleep in their Savior this past year, held secure in our Savior, awaiting the for the Last Day and the resurrection unto eternal life. We celebrate their faith, knowing that though they are absent from our eyes, yet we are forever together in this communion of saints that is held in the One, Holy and Apostolic Christian Church.

Join us tonight at 6 pm for our Adult Education class as we begin our first installment of "The Differences between Lutheranism and other Church Bodies." We are beginning with the 7th Day Adventist Church.

You may have noticed they have begun cleaning & caulking the bricks on the church to prepare for painting. Anyone wishing to donate to this project is still welcome to by marking it as "Building Fund".

We've moved to our next section of the Small Catechism, the Apostles' Creed, and so the call for you to continue your study with the youth is back! First Article: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. What does this mean? Answer: I believe that God has made me and all creatures. He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my limbs, my reason, and all my senses, and still preserves them. In addition, He has given me clothing and shoes, meat and drink, house and home, wife and children, fields, cattle, and all my goods. He provides me richly and daily with all that I need to support this body and life. He protects me from all danger and guards me and preserves me from all evil. He does all this out of pure, fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me. For all this I ought to thank Him, praise Him, serve Him, and obey Him. This is most certainly true.
