

Colony at Minnesota City

Paul P. Thompson, local historian, spent eight years writing letters to all parts of the state to the settlers shown above. They are:

Top row, left to right:—Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Houck, D. Q. Burley, E. B. Drew, Jacob

Middle row, left to right—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thorp, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Houck, D. Q. Burley, E. B. Drew, Jacob

Bottom row, left to right—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Houck, D. Q. Burley, E. B. Drew, Jacob

City Once Largest in State

United States to secure the photographs of the first permanent Minnesota City set-Mrs. Egbert Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pike, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Waterman, and Mrs. Lawrence Dilworth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bannon, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Putnam, Denman and David Duryea.