

Will Testify

In the open-air observatory, high
Atop an anonymous elevation
Overlooking the end of East Van,
A man that is isolated, broken
And Covid-19 shut out, raises his Head even higher as if to break
Glass, and gains entry into the radiant
Blue-black mystery throwing over
The sky above. Then just for the briefest
Of spells, as shine-on-brightly
Mars will testify, that broken man
Is made whole again.
