

ORAPIN HONGTHONG LEE

2912 Remington street
Jacksonville FL 32205

850-368-3840
orapinhong@gmail.com, orapin.lee@brooksrehab.org

EDUCATION & CERTIFICATION

McCormick Faculty of Nursing

Payap University Thailand Bachelor of Science (Major: Nursing & Midwifery)
March 1986

Florida Nursing License

Registered Nurse

License No. RN9278553

Issued 07/02/2008

Renewed 04/2024

Certification Rehabilitation Registered Nurse

CRRN

Certification No. 00195662

Issued 13/12/2010

Renewed 09/2025

BLS Certification

American Heart Association

Expires 06/2026

PEARS Certification

Expires 09/2025

Renewal pending

Wound Care Certification

Certification No. 11161518

Issued 11/20/2015

Renewed 11/2020

University of West Florida

Master of Nursing Science in Education

Graduated 2020

EMPLOYMENT & RESPONSIBILITIES

Brooks Rehabilitation Hospital

3599 University Blvd. South, Jacksonville FL 32216

904-345-7504

4R, SCI/Pediatric Program

Director of Nursing: Adam Francis,

Position: Nurse Manager, July 2023 – present

Assistant Nurse Manager, 2018 – 2023

Clinical RN III, Charge Nurse, February 2013 – 2018

Employed: September 2, 2008 to Present

- Provide coaching to employees to improve quality and patient care initiatives

ORAPIN HONGTHONG LEE

2912 Remington street
Jacksonville FL 32205

850-368-3840
orapinhong@gmail.com, orapin.lee@brooksrehab.org

- Ensure clinical staff competency in education and serve as resource to all unit staff members
- Provide orientation and successful onboarding to new staff in collaboration with clinical educators
- Evaluate staff performance in a timely manner in accordance with established criteria, set realistic goals and provide guidance for professional development
- Assist in the allocation of resources such as supplies, staffing, and equipment
- Maintain safe work environment
- Ensure staff compliance with safety, fire, infection control, and sundry policies and procedures
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with other members of the healthcare team
- Participating in Brooks Nursing Advanced Academy to enhance leadership skills
- Communicate with physicians, nurse practitioners, and physician assistants to ensure patients receive needed care and treatment
- Serve as a member of the hospital's Nursing Leadership
- Serve as a member of Interdisciplinary Shared Governance Research Council
- Collaboration with Wolfson Children Hospital to improve outcomes for pediatric patients

MISCELLANEOUS

- Computer skills: Microsoft word, Excel, PowerPoint
- Language: Thai, English
- Poster Presentation: "The Relationship Between the Family Presence and Patient Food Intake" for the National Gerontological Nursing Association Convention in Baltimore, MD on October 4 – 5, 2012, and on Brooks Research Day, October 24, 2012
- Poster Presentation: "Quality Improvement: Best Practice for Effective Bowel Management for SCI Patients with Neurogenic Bowel Dysfunction" on Brooks Research Day, October 2013, and at Florida Association Rehabilitation Nurses, Orlando, May 2014
- Co-presentation: "A Nursing Quality Improvement Project: An Evidence-based Bowel Management Intervention" at the Academy of Spinal Cord Injury Professionals on September 3, 2014, St. Louis, MO
- Co-investigator and presenter in Collaborative Research between University of North Florida and Brooks Rehabilitation Hospital 2014 – 2015: "Patients' Spinal Cord Injury Satisfaction with Self-Care Teaching by Nurses: A Collaborative Study." Presented on February 24 – 27, 2016, at the Southern Research Nurse Society, Williamsburg, VA
- Volunteer and team coach for annual Heart Walk fundraising to benefit the American Heart Association from 2016 – present. Coach from 2023 – present

ORAPIN HONGTHONG LEE

2912 Remington street
Jacksonville FL 32205

850-368-3840
orapinhong@gmail.com, orapin.lee@brooksrehab.org

- Co-presentation: “Comprehensive SCI Care Across the Continuum” at the Florida State Association of Rehabilitation Nurses on April 29, 2022, Orlando, Florida
 - Co-author: poster presentation “Bowel Program Compliance: Achieving the Impossible!” Association for Rehabilitation Nurses, 2024
 - Serve as a Secretary, Northeast District of the Florida State Association of Rehabilitation Nurses since January 2024 – present
-

Professional Membership.

- Association of Rehabilitation Nurses since 2011
 - National Alliance of Wound Care and Ostomy since 2015
 - Northeast District of the Florida State Association of Rehabilitation Nurses 2018 – present
 - Past member National Gerontological Nurses Association since 2012 – 2017
 - Past member Academy of Spinal Cord Injury Professionals since 2014 – 2018
 - Past member American Nurses Association & Florida Nurses Association 2019 – 2020
-

Award & Recognition

- “Voice of Brooks Nursing Award” for displaying the values of model nursing, 2012
- “Celebrate the Stars” award, 2012, Brooks’ highest recognition award for exemplifying values of excellence, integrity, innovation, service, accountability, and teamwork
- DAISY Award for Nurse Leader, November 2024