Dear Chairman Eliahu,

It is my pleasure to commend you for your dedication to Rotary service and your efforts in upholding and imparting the ideals of Rotary International through the Raising Awareness of Hypertension Project in District 2490 this past March. I read with interest, the collaborative efforts as well as the steps taken to ensure the effectiveness of this important project.

Your dedicated service to Rotary, is a shining example of how Rotary Shares. It is through the personal acts of service by committed Rotarians like you, that our organization has grown from one small club to a vast international network of volunteers making a real difference in their own communities and far beyond.

I congratulate you on both the mission and your success. Thank you for giving of yourself for the good of others.

Kind regards,
