A Note from Beth

Happy Holidays to everyone. As may have heard, the cookie sale was a remarkable success. We sold 3,500 cookies and sold out soon after 10 o'clock mass. Parishioners were asking us to do this again next year which we will discuss at a later date.

We had a short meeting before the Christmas party. Hopefully you have received the minutes. It was great to see so many people attend the Christmas Party Dinner. The food was incredible! Thanks to all that made the dinner a memorable event.

Please remember to pray for those who may be having a difficult Christmas season due to illness, loneliness, financial struggles, and family conflicts. May the Lord Bless You abundantly this Christmas season!

Mouse Races February 17th

The mouse races will be back again this year! Make plans to attend the event February 17th.

You can bring snacks to the event, similar to trivia night events.

We are asking members to bring a bottle of liquor to donate for a booze cooler that will be raffled off. For more information on tickets and sponsorship opportunities, contact Todd Kirchoff at (636) 262-4025 or kirch1029@gmail.com.

Christmas Pageant 2023

Our annual Christmas pageant was held on December 12th and 13th at Assumption. The show was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended the performances.

Big thanks to Jane Henthorn and Brenda Fischer who served as music directors again this year. Thanks also to the teens who helped direct the show, especially Executive Director Molly Vohsen and Directors Maria Thessen and Charlotte Thomas. Outstanding work also by Molly Rost who directed all the solos.

Special thanks to our costume mistresses Kathy Neihaus and Debbie Moynihan. The cast looked great again this year!
