The Board of the directors will discuss all applications during their meetings

If approved, the designated members will schedule a meeting with the religious, family or student and his or her parents

Retired Religious and Families in Need also need to submit a letter expressing their concerns and a disclosure of any other special assistance programs that they have applied for in addition to St. Cecilia Foundation.

The amount granted will be sent to the school for your tuition or caregiving institution.

Pope Francis

invites the elderly to overcome the temptation to stand aside, because the Lord never discards them, but rather restores their strength to serve.

From the USCCB website...

Catholic schools prepare students to be faithful disciples of Christ. Catholic education addresses the development of the whole person – spirit, mind, and body – through spiritual and academic formation based on the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pope Benedict XVI in his encyclicals, Deus Caritas Est (God Is Love) and Caritas in Veritate (Charity in Truth), explains that through our works of charity and social justice we more concretely live out the commandment to love the most poor and vulnerable among us, which, as Jesus taught, translates to love of God (“ ...
