

Caption: Craftsman John Smith (left), of Woodsmith of Naples, explains his creations of centerpiece lanterns made with exotic woods, priced from $45 to $335, to Tom and Julie Nowak, of Vero Beach, during the opening day of the 67th annual Under the Oaks, Fine Arts & Crafts Show on Friday, March 9, 2018, at Riverside Park, 3280 Riverside Park Drive in Vero Beach. More than 200 artists have displays of artwork from paintings, photography, jewelry, sculptures, woodwork, and more under the oak trees throughout the park. "It's magnificent, so many unique things," said Julie Nowak said after purchasing a lantern. "A lot of great artists, and we're just very happy to be out her enjoying the day." The show continues 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.