

Aeronautical English Quiz (B2 Level) - 10 Questions

1. Choose the correct sentence (present tense):
 - a) The pilot usually flies long-haul flights.
 - b) The pilot usually is flying long-haul flights.
 - c) The pilot usually flying long-haul flights.
2. Complete the sentence with the present continuous tense:
 - The maintenance team _____ (inspect) the aircraft engines carefully today.
3. Choose the correct past tense form:
 - The airplane _____ (take off) just before the storm started.
 - a) takes off
 - b) took off
 - c) taking off
4. Write a sentence in the future tense using "going to":
 - Example: The captain _____ (go to) brief the crew before departure.
5. Which sentence correctly uses the present continuous to describe a temporary action?
 - a) The air traffic controller coordinates flights every day.
 - b) The air traffic controller is coordinating an emergency landing right now.
 - c) The air traffic controller coordinated flights yesterday.
6. Fill in the blank with the past perfect tense:
 - By the time the passengers arrived, the plane _____ (already/prepare) for takeoff.
7. Choose the correct sentence in the future simple tense:
 - a) The crew will complete the safety checks before boarding.
 - b) The crew completes the safety checks before boarding.
 - c) The crew completed the safety checks before boarding.
8. Complete with the present perfect tense:
 - The airline _____ (fly) to over 100 destinations since it was founded.
9. Fill in the blank with the past continuous tense:
 - While the pilots _____ (conduct) pre-flight checks, the passengers waited in the lounge.
10. Write a sentence predicting what will happen during the next flight.