Karen Lewis The agent behind LEKA Travel

Hello, I'm Karen Lewis, founder of LEKA Travel, with over 20 years of experience in the travel industry. I've had the privilege of working across every corner of travel—Corporate, Leisure, Online, Government, Oil & Gas, ITC, and both inbound and outbound travel. My journey has taken me from arranging iconic trips like a Harley ride along Route 66 to organising private river cruises across Europe.

I've also had the pleasure of working with top VIP clients, showcasing South Africa's stunning landscapes, as well as partnering with CEOs and executives to ensure their business trips run flawlessly so that they can focus on what they do best. I also assist other travel companies to help maximise their business offerings.

I'd be delighted to assist with all your travel needs.
I look forward to making your travel dreams a reality!

travel my life

Travel has also been part of my own story—I've explored Rwanda, Turkey, Malaysia, Mauritius, and all 9 provinces of South Africa. I believe that travel isn't just a luxury; it's a necessity. Whether it's for business growth, connecting with loved ones, or finding peace or pleasure, I'm here to make it happen smoothly.

memorable travel

I pride myself on delivering exceptional service and attention to detail. I respond quickly to every client, ensuring they're guided at every step. Navigating travel can be tedious and time-consuming, but I'm here to simplify it for you, offering options, insights, and personalised planning to ensure a memorable experience.

my mission

LEKA Travel, named in honour of my children—Lia, Ethan, and myself Karen Ann—is the culmination of my passion and experience. It's my mission to offer you the best service in the industry, along with a personal touch you can trust.
