RECENTLY, THE GOVERNMENT of the Republic of Liberia instituted legal action against the International Trust Company and its conglomeration of companies to retrieve money due it, but has been diverted to other sources as a result of a grand conspiracy on the part of these conglomerates. These conspirators used the seven years period of our national tragedy to have field day by diverting money legitimately due the country.

IN THE FACE of this glaring cheating, attempts by some patriotic citizens to make ITC answer some questions have always hit formidable obstacles both at home and abroad. All those who chant the chorus against questioning how ITC is managing our wartime program are those who are either Operation project for Liberia (OPL) a non-governmental and relief organization has been established in Monrovia.

The organization is to provide leadership and technical assistance to individuals and groups that are engaged in humanitarian relief services.

The organization which is headquartered in the Ivorian town of Tabou will further buttress the efforts of both local and international non-governmental organizations in the provision of food, medical, educational and housing facilities to those in need.

The coordinator of the Liberian branch of the organization, Mr. Austin Flomo, told this paper recently that the organization will focus its attention on finding solutions to critical issues such as socio-economic and educational empowerment of the people.

Mr. Flomo further disclosed that a consignment of relief materials estimated at a cost of over LD$700,000 have arrived in Monrovia for distribution to needy Liberians.

He said, the items which include used clothing, cane food, foot-wears, medicine, books as well as library materials were donated by the Liberian community foundation which is based in California, United States of America.
