

You protected your country

Make sure you protect your loved ones, too

Transamerica Final Expense Solutions Portfolio for veterans

You put your life on the line for your country, now it's time to plan for your family and protect them from the potential financial burden of your final expenses. Transamerica's Final Expense Solutions Portfolio provides level premium whole life insurance policies with flexible face amounts and a guaranteed death benefit. Featuring a digital application process and real-time underwriting decisions, you can conveniently and easily prepare for your end-of-life expenses.

Think you have enough coverage? You may be surprised.

If you qualify, the Veterans Administration final expense benefit for nonservice-related death, whether hospitalized by the VA at the time of death or not, is $978 for a plot and a $978 burial allowance.¹

Helping you bridge the gap

Whether you're covered by the VA or a private insurer, make sure the coverage you have today is sufficient to cover your future final expenses. Transamerica's Final Expense Solutions Portfolio may be able to help bridge the gap. We offer a wide range of life insurance coverage options to fit your unique needs and budget. Transamerica wants to ensure you're properly protected and don't have to rely on a policy that's too small to cover even expected costs.

The protection you need

To help thank you for your service, Transamerica offers guaranteed, level-premium whole life protection for veterans with premiums that won't change as you age or as your health changes. In fact, the younger you acquire the policy, the better your rate may be. We honor the sacrifices you've already made, so we don't count most common service-related conditions against you, including most mental health diagnoses.

You've sacrificed enough. Now it's time to make things a little easier for your loved ones and yourself. Allow Transamerica to put your mind at ease and finally get the full protection you deserve.

Let us serve you.
