

THE NEED FOR Life Insurance

Whether you are a parent who works full time or stays at home, or even if you are married and have no children, you may be required to make significant changes if your spouse were no longer around to help provide for the family. This may be a thought you'd rather not consider, but isn't it best to be prepared?

Help protect your family... speak with your spouse about purchasing life insurance!

Would you...

- Have the ability to pay the mortgage?
- Be forced to return to work?
- Have to scramble to find or even afford childcare?
- Be able to afford sending your children to college with just your income?

All of these questions are serious, and if you can't answer them or don't like the answers, now is the right time to make sure your spouse has life insurance. The simple decision to purchase life insurance has long-lasting implications.

Life Insurance proceeds may help pay:

A mortgage

Housecleaning and upkeep for your home

College tuition, now and in the future

Medical bills or other debts

Childcare
