

Dear Valued Client,

As your life changes, your financial needs change as well. Maybe you're a new homeowner, you're starting a family, perhaps your kids are starting college, or maybe you're heading quickly toward retirement. Are you prepared for these foreseeable life changes? I would like to introduce you to several solutions from Amerigo that may be right for any stage of your life.

Owning Your Home:

- Do you have mortgage life insurance that may help pay your mortgage and other expenses upon your death?
- What would happen if you are involuntarily unemployed, become totally disabled, or are diagnosed with a qualifying critical, chronic, or terminal illness?

You can have peace of mind with mortgage protection from Amerigo.

Caring for Your Family:

- What if one of the major breadwinners in the household was to die?
- Would the family be forced to move?
- How would you pay for the mortgage and everyday expenses?

We can discuss life insurance options that are best suited for your family.

Heading into Retirement:

- Are you worried about outliving your savings when you retire?
- Who will pay for your nursing home or hospital expenses as you age?
- How do you want your money to grow after you retire?

Discover how you protect and grow your money with an annuity.

Help protect yourself and your family today. Contact me and we can discuss all the options available to you through Amerigo. We can find a product that best suits your needs at all of life's stages.

Sincerely,

Christopher Franklin
